Are You Providing Care for – or Worrying About – an Elderly Family Member?

Could you benefit from support in this important, caring role?

(from right to left)

Program Director:
Kathy Gill

Assistant Program Director:
Mandi Speakman

Program Aide:
Joann Armstrong

Activity Director:
Maura Burns

Caregiving does not have to be an "all or nothing decision" – all care provided by you, or placing your loved one in a nursing home. With the Gathering Place, your family member can be safe and active all day, and you can care for yourself too, without so much worry.

Your loved one thrives with quality care in a safe, supportive environment at The Gathering Place.

- Increased personal safety with supervision in a protective environment
- Regular wellness checks
- Caring, professional staff who make personal service a top priority
- Dignified assistance and support for each person
- Carefully planned activities to create friendships and daily exercise programs to enhance physical wellness

Caring for your loved one includes caring for yourself so you can be at your best.

- Feel caught-up again, less frustrated. You can take care of other business, household chores, or complete errands on your "to do list."
- Revitalize yourself to give time to other family members.
- Enjoy a chance to rest and relax to help maintain your own health and strength, which your loved one depends on.

The Gathering Place is your partner in providing quality care.

- Get to know the professionals on our staff, our quality of care and our commitment.
- Enjoy the convenient location and daily hours of operation that meet your needs.
- Take advantage of safe, door-to-door transportation available via the B-Bus.

Do something wonderful.

Call Kathy Gill at
The Gathering Place today.
(508) 255-6734

The Gathering Place
The Next Best Place to Home

Co-located with the Eastham Senior Center at 1405 Nauset Road, North Eastham