

Beatrix Potter: A Series of Illustrated Talks presented by Betsy Bray

Eastham Public Library
190 Samoset Road
(508) 240 5950

Beatrix Potter, beloved children's writer and illustrator, created books that will forever add an appreciation for nature for all readers. This lecture series highlights the life and times of this extraordinary woman. Speaker Betsy Bray is a member of the Beatrix Potter Society who has served as a docent at her home Hill Top Farm in England's Lake District. She has been introducing audiences to the woman behind the beloved children's books for over twenty-five years.
