License Exemption Warning

Be advised that a majority of those citizens who sign the Homeowner's Exemption Agreement on the reverse side are not fully aware of the responsibilities that go along with assuming the role of "Contractor". By seeking this exemption, you assume significant risks. Please Note:

- You are now personally responsible for all work on this project.
- You are responsible to see that all work meets the Mass. Bldg. Codes.
- You must supervise all work.
- You must call the Bldg. Dept. to schedule all required inspections.
- You have waived your rights and are no longer entitled to any Claim against the Massachusetts HIC Guaranty Fund.
- You are the General Contractor of the project and a court of law will view you as such if you are sued, or if you should have the need to sue another party.
- Your subcontractors may place liens on your property.
- Any worker injured on your project may sue you if you do not carry Worker's Compensation Insurance.
- Failure to carry Worker's Compensation Insurance may result in criminal penalties, i.e. fines and/or imprisonment.

Massachusetts General Laws chapter 152 section 25 requires all employers to provide workers' Compensation for their employees. As quoted from the "law", an employee is defined as every person in service of another under contract of hire; implied, oral or written.

An employer is defined as an individual, partnership, association, corporation or other legal entity, or any two or more of the foregoing engaged in a joint enterprise, and including the legal entity, employing employees. However, the owner of a dwelling house having not more than three apartments and who resides therein, or the occupant of the dwelling house of another who employs persons to do maintenance, construction or repair work on such dwelling house or on the grounds or building appurtenant thereto shall not because of such employment be deemed to be an employer.
